

Houseplants Great for Overwaterers

We recommend adhering to a weekly watering schedule to help some folks who are a little too eager with water their plants. Be sure you're not keeping the soil constantly soaking wet. Below are some plants that don't mind a little extra moisture.

- Anthurium
- Boston Fern
- Bromeliad
- Carnivorous Plants
- Jester Fern
- Peace Lily
- Selaginella
- Tillandsia (non-furry kind) – soaking
